AcrossLimits – A Profile

AcrossLimits is a dynamic SME focusing on technology and innovation based in Malta. It has just celebrated it's 17th year anniversary since it was registered in 2001.

It has a core team based in Malta, and an external network of consultants spanning several EU countries.

Our innovative solutions are the fruit of our own internal research combined with experience gathered in collaborative research with our European partners.

Our mission statement: Innovation for solving tomorrow's challenges.
