Foster European Active Citizenship and Sustainability
Through Ecological Thinking by NGOs

From 2nd to 4th of February 2020 we participated in the 3rd transnational meeting of the Erasmus+ project: 'NGEnvironment- Foster European Active Citizenship and Sustainability Through Ecological Thinking by NGOs' (2018-1-DE02-KA204-005014) in Reggio Emilia (Italy).

This meeting was attended by representatives of the partner entities: University Paderborn (Germany), Right Challenge (Portugal), EPEK – Society for Environmental Education of Korinthia (Greece), Across Limits Ltd. (Malta), Future in Perspective (Ireland), SINERGIE (Italy), Grupul Pentru Integrare Europeana (Romania) and Permacultura Cantabria (Spain).

During this meeting, we reviewed the current state of the intellectual outputs 2 and 3 of the project: Training packages for social and green leadership whose structures and modules were presented by Marc Beutner. Materials created for IO5 were also presented by Georgeta Chirlesan.

Meeting attendees had also time to discuss the dissemination plan, results exploitation and resolve questions on reporting. Besides, next steps in the NGEviroment project were agreed. To close the meeting, participants could enjoy typical Italian food and visit Reggio Emilia city center.
