Governments should take the necessary decisions to guarantee the fundamental rights of citizens, including the right to enjoy an adequate environment. When these decisions are not taken with the necessary determination or speed, citizens need to take action and demand the institutions to protect what belongs to all of us. There are numerous independent NGOs and social movements that look out for the interests of the citizenship.

It is everyone's responsibility to act.

TAKING ACTION

"I cannot conceive life any other way than fighting to protect the environment. The Earth and the whole system need an urgent paradigm shift".

Raquel Muñoz

Spanish Environmental Activist

"We can't avoid the fact that people have an incredible power. When the people organize themselves, in grassroots movements or NGOs, the power they can achieve is much bigger than the sum of the power of each individual. It is time to disobey, it is time to ACT"
