Foster European Active Citizenship and Sustainability
Through Ecological Thinking by NGOs

From 21th to 23th of May, 2019 we hosted the 2nd transnational meeting of the Erasmus+project: ‘NGEnvironment- Foster European Active Citizenship and Sustainability Through Ecological Thinking by NGOs’ (2018-1-DE02-KA204-005014) in Santander (Spain).

It was attended by representatives of the partner entities: University Paderborn (Germany), Right Challenge (Portugal), EPEK – Society for Environmental Education of Korinthia (Greece), Across Limits Ltd. (Malta), Future in Perspective (Ireland), SINERGIE (Italy), Grupul Pentru Integrare Europeana (Romania) and Permacultura Cantabria (Spain).

This meeting aimed to take an overview of the state of the project development. We had the opportunity of reviewing the current status of intellectual outputs (IO1, IO2 and IO3), the website and the work plan for the next months. Besides, all the assistants could have a highly interesting discussion on the project NGEnvironment and the need of entrepreneurship in the field of NGOs.

Finally, participants visited the sea coast and enjoyed the Spanish food and the views from the lighthouse.
